Before you go

Some countries restrict entry by tourists and other non-essential travelers. If you're planning a trip abroad, it's a good idea to check the embassy website of your intended destination for information on entry and exit restrictions, quarantine policies and other important health and safety concerns.

Quality coverage from coast to coast

With our Medicare Plus Blue PPO plans, you have access to tens of thousands of leading doctors and hospitals nationwide — typically at in-network rates where Medicare and the Blue Cross card are accepted.
