

Reporting and Disclosure Guide for Employee Benefit Plans

U.S. Department of Labor
Employee Benefits Security Administration

Revised October 2008

Introduction

This Reporting and Disclosure Guide for Employee Benefit Plans has been prepared by the U.S. Department of Labor's Employee Benefits Security Administration (EBSA) with assistance from the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation (PBGC). It is intended to be used as a quick reference tool for certain basic reporting and disclosure requirements under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA). Not all ERISA reporting and disclosure requirements are reflected in this guide. For example, the guide, as a general matter, does not focus on disclosures required by the Internal Revenue Code or the provisions of ERISA for which the Treasury Department and Internal Revenue Service have regulatory and interpretive authority.

The guide contains, on page 19, a list of EBSA and PBGC resources, including agency Internet sites, where laws, regulations, and other guidance are available on ERISA's reporting and disclosure requirements. Readers should refer to the law, regulations, instructions for any applicable form, or other official guidance issued by EBSA or the PBGC for complete information on ERISA's reporting and disclosure requirements.

This guide contains three chapters. The first chapter, beginning on page 2, provides an overview of the most common disclosures that administrators of employee benefit plans are required to furnish to participants, beneficiaries, and certain other individuals under Title I of ERISA. The chapter has three sections: Basic Disclosure Requirements for Pension and Welfare Benefit Plans; Additional Disclosure Requirements for Welfare Benefit Plans That Are Group

Health Plans; and Additional Disclosure Requirements for Pension Plans.

The second chapter, beginning on page 10, provides an overview of reporting and disclosure requirements for defined benefit pension plans under Title IV of ERISA. The PBGC administers these provisions. The chapter focuses primarily on single-employer plans and has four sections. The first section - Pension Insurance Premiums - applies to covered single-employer and multiemployer defined benefit plans. The last three sections - Standard Terminations, Distress Terminations, and Other Reports - apply only to covered single-employer defined benefit plans.

The third chapter, beginning on page 14, provides an overview of the Form 5500 and Form M-1 Annual Reporting requirements. The chapter consists of the following quick reference charts: Pension and Welfare Benefit Plan Form 5500 Quick Reference Chart; DFE Form 5500 Quick Reference Chart; and Form M-1 Quick Reference Chart.

This Department of Labor publication is intended to improve public access to information about the reporting and disclosure rules under ERISA. We made every effort to ensure that the information presented reflects current laws and final regulations as of July 2008. Please be sure to check current laws and regulations on our website at www.dol.gov/ebsa.

Overview of ERISA Title I Basic Disclosure Requirements^{1*}

Section 1: Basic Disclosure Requirements for Pension and Welfare Benefit Plans
Document	Type of Information	To Whom	When
Summary Plan Description (SPD)	Primary vehicle for informing participants and beneficiaries about their plan and how it operates. Must be written for average participant and be sufficiently comprehensive to apprise covered persons of their benefits, rights, and obligations under the plan. Must accurately reflect the plan's contents as of the date not earlier than 120 days prior to the date the SPD is disclosed. See 29 CFR §§ 2520.102-2 and 2520.102-3 for style, format, and content requirements.	Participants and those pension plan beneficiaries receiving benefits. (Also see "Plan Documents" below for persons with the right to obtain SPD upon request). However, a plan has 120 days after becoming subject to ERISA to distribute the SPD. Updated SPD must be furnished every 5 years if changes made to SPD information or plan is amended. Otherwise must be furnished every 10 years. See 29 CFR § 2520.104b-2.

Notification of Benefit Determination (claims notices or "explanation of benefits")	Information regarding benefit claim determinations. Adverse benefit determinations must include required disclosures (e.g., the specific reason(s) for the denial of a claim, reference to the specific plan provisions on which the benefit determination is based, and a description of the plan's appeal procedures).	Claimants (participants and beneficiaries or authorized claims representatives).	Requirements vary depending on type of plan and type of benefit claim involved. See 29 CFR § 2560.503-1 for prescribed claims procedures requirements.
Plan Documents	The plan administrator must furnish copies of certain documents upon written request and must have copies available for examination. The documents include the latest updated SPD, latest Form 5500, trust agreement, and other instruments under which the plan is established or operated.	Participants and beneficiaries. Also see 29 CFR § 2520.104a-8 regarding the Department's authority to request documents.	Copies must be furnished no later than 30 days after a written request. Overview of Form 5500 and Form M-1 Annual Reporting Requirements

Form 5500 Annual Reporting Requirements

EBSA, in conjunction with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and the PBGC, publishes the Form 5500 Annual Return/Report forms used by plan administrators to satisfy various annual reporting obligations under ERISA and the Internal Revenue Code (Code).

For the 2007 and 2008 plan years, filers will continue to use the ERISA Filing Acceptance System (EFAST), unless otherwise directed. There are two formats for filing the Form 5500 in EFAST.* The first format, “machine print,” is completed using computer software from EFAST-approved vendors and can be filed electronically or by mail, including certain private delivery services. The other format, “hand print,” may be completed by typewriter, by hand, or by using computer software from EFAST approved vendors, and may be filed only by mail, including certain private delivery services. Beginning in the 2009 reporting year, Form 5500 filing and processing will be wholly electronic. Filers will be able to complete Form 5500s online using a Web-based interface or continue to use third-party developed software. For more information about electronic filing under EFAST2, see www.efast.dol.gov.

The Form 5500 filing requirements vary according to the type of filer. There are three general types of filers: small plans (generally plans with fewer than 100 participants as of the beginning of the plan year); large plans (generally plans with 100 or more participants as of the beginning of the plan year); and direct filing entities (DFEs). DFEs are trusts, accounts, and other investment or insurance arrangements that plans participate in and that are required to or allowed to file the Form 5500 directly with EBSA. These investment and insurance arrangements include master trust investment accounts (MTIAs), common/collective trusts (CCTs), pooled separate accounts (PSAs), 103-12 investment entities (103-12 IEs), and group insurance arrangements (GIAs). MTIAs are the only DFE for which the filing of the Form 5500 is mandatory. Employee benefit plans that participate in CCTs, PSAs, 103-12 IEs, and GIAs that file as DFEs are eligible for certain annual reporting relief.

Certain employee benefit plans are exempt from the annual reporting requirements or are eligible for limited reporting options. The major classes of plans exempt from filing an annual report or eligible for limited reporting are described in the Form 5500 instructions.

The Form 5500 filed by plan administrators and GIAs are due by the last day of the 7th calendar month after the end of the plan or GIA year (not to exceed 12 months in length). See the Form 5500 instructions for information on extensions. The Form 5500 filed by DFEs other than GIAs are due no later than 9^{1/2} months after the end of the DFE year.

Two quick reference charts from the 2008 Form 5500 immediately follow this section and describe the basic filing requirements for small plans, large plans, and DFEs. The two charts are: Pension and Welfare Benefit Plan Form 5500 Quick Reference Chart on pages 15 and 16, and DFE Form 5500 Quick Reference Chart on page 17. Check the EFAST Internet site at www.efast.dol.gov and the latest Form 5500 instructions for information on who is required to file, how to complete the forms, when to file, EFAST approved software, and electronic filing options. Also check the EFAST Internet site for Form 5500s, Schedules, and Instructions for reporting years prior to 2008, if you are submitting a late or amended filing.

Form M-1 Annual Reporting Requirements

Administrators of multiple employer welfare arrangements (MEWAs) and certain other entities that offer or provide coverage for medical care to employees of two or more employers are generally required to file the Form M-1 (Report for Multiple Employer Welfare Arrangements (MEWAs) and Certain Entities Claiming Exception (ECEs)). The Form M-1 is filed with EBSA and can be filed online at <http://www.askebsa.dol.gov/mewa>. The Form M-1 is generally due no later than March 1, following any calendar year for which a filing is required. A quick reference chart on Reporting Requirements for MEWAs and ECEs is on page 18. Also, check the EBSA Internet site at www.dol.gov/ebsa for more information on the Form M-1.

*For plan years and DFE reporting years beginning January 1, 2008, all Forms 5500 Annual Return/Report must be filed electronically. See 71 FR 41359 (July 21, 2006).
