

Quality maternity care close to home

You have quality, even superior, maternity care right here in the U.P. The maternity care at Marshfield Medical Center-Dickinson in Iron Mountain is a Blue Distinction® Specialty Care center, which means it meets national levels of excellence in care, safety and cost efficiency.

Health care providers at Blue Distinction centers have demonstrated an exceptional level of expertise in their specialty. They prioritize prevention and use the patient-centered approach to care, which means they focus on you and your whole health. Providers at the maternity care center leverage the latest technology to help drive the best health outcomes. What's more, these providers are in your neighborhood — so they can relate to your unique health needs.

Stay close to home and get the care you need. You can be confident the maternity care you receive at a Blue Distinction center is as good as the care you receive anywhere in the U.S.
