Temporomandibular joint dysfunction treatment

Temporomandibular joint dysfunction, also called TMJ disorder, is a condition of the jaw joint and related structures in which the ball (condyle), socket (fossa) or the cushioning disk (meniscus) of the joint are damaged or misaligned. Over time, the meniscus becomes increasingly compressed and torn, allowing the bony structures of the ball and socket to deteriorate at an accelerated rate due to the grinding wear on the joint and the loss of cushioning effect of the meniscus. This grinding (crepitus) and concurrent pressure on the capsular ligament surrounding the joint may cause head pain and may create difficulty in opening or closing of the mouth. The body attempts to realign the joint using the musculature in the face, jaw and neck. As these muscles become fatigued, additional muscles in the shoulders and back may also be used to alleviate the condition and become fatigued.

TMJ dysfunction may be the result of congenital or developmental anomalies; fractures or dislocations resulting from trauma, internal derangement or ankylosis (stiffening or fixation of a joint); arthritic diseases or neoplastic diseases.

Symptoms attributed to TMJ dysfunction are variable and include, but are not limited to:

- Clicking sounds in the jaw.
- Headaches.
- Closing or locking of the jaw due to muscle spasms (trismus).
- Displaced disc; pain in the ears, neck, arms and spine; tinnitus and bruxism (clenching or grinding of the teeth).

Original Medicare

Original Medicare doesn't cover TMJ dysfunction treatment.

BCN Advantage Group enhanced benefit

BCN Advantage is a Medicare Advantage plan which provides at least the same level of benefit coverage as Original Medicare (Part A and Part B) and may provide enhanced benefits beyond the scope of Original Medicare within a single health care plan. This flexibility allows Blue Cross to offer enriched plans by using Original Medicare as the base program and adding desired benefit options.

Coverage for TMJ dysfunction treatment is provided to members under select BCN Advantage Group plans. Because Original Medicare doesn't cover this service, the groups that select this benefit determine the scope of benefit, reimbursement methodology, maximum payment amounts and the member's cost sharing.

The following services are covered to treat TMJ dysfunction treatment:

- Surgery directly related to the temporomandibular joint (jaw joint) and related anesthesia services
- Arthrocentesis performed for the treatment of temporomandibular joint (jaw joint) dysfunction
- Diagnostic X-rays (including MRIs)
- Trigger point injections

Reimbursement

To find BCN Advantage plan's maximum payment amount for TMJ dysfunction treatment, visit our provider portal, Availity Essentials. Within Secure Provider Resources, click on BCN Fee Schedules under the Fee Schedules tab and follow the instructions. The provider will be paid the lesser of this allowed amount or the provider's charge, minus the member's cost share. This represents payment in full and providers aren't allowed to bill the member for the difference between the allowed amount and the charge.

Member cost share

- BCN Advantage providers should collect the applicable cost share from the member at the time of the service, when possible. Cost share refers to a flat dollar copayment, a percentage coinsurance or a deductible. Providers can only collect the appropriate BCN Advantage cost share amounts from the member.
- If the member elects to receive a noncovered service, he or she is responsible for the entire charge associated with that service.

- Providers may not have members sign an Advance Beneficiary Notice of Noncoverage to accept financial responsibility for noncovered items. If there is any question about whether an item is covered, seek a coverage determination from Blue Care Network before providing the item to the member. If a provider issues a noncovered item to a member without first obtaining a coverage determination, the member must be held harmless for all charges except for any applicable cost share.

To verify benefits and cost share, providers may use our provider portal or call 1-800-344-8525.
