

Suggestions for reopening offices post-COVID-19 document available

We have created a new document to support provider offices when reopening post COVID-19. The Suggestions for reopening post-COVID-19 while improving the Patient Experience document outlines several ways to prepare your staff and office, how to practice patient safety and communication and how to offer patient accessibility. It also includes a flyer to promote what your office is doing to keep your patients safe during their appointments.